Subject: Compliance regarding observance of 14th August as the Day of Remembrance of the Partition of Bengal

Sir/Madam,

With due respect, I am pleased to inform you that Sukdev Brahmachari Institute of Education, Krishnapur, Saguna, Kalyani, Nadia, West Bengal, successfully observed 14th August as the Day of Remembrance of the Partition of Bengal in compliance with the instructions issued by the competent authority.

The programme was organized on 14 August 2026 (Friday) at 11:00 A.M. in the college campus with the active participation of the Principal, faculty members, non-teaching staff, B.Ed. and D.El.Ed. student-teachers, and invited guests. The observance included welcome addresses, patriotic songs, recitations, student speeches, and discussions highlighting the historical significance of the Partition of Bengal, the sufferings and hardships endured by displaced people, and the social, cultural, and economic consequences of Partition.

A special memorial lecture was delivered by Dr. Sujit Kumar Biswas, District Co-ordinator, Samagra Shiksha Mission, Nadia, and noted author, writer, and speaker, who elaborated on the historical background of Partition and emphasized the values of unity, resilience, harmony, and national integration. The programme provided an opportunity for students and teachers to reflect upon one of the most significant chapters in the history of Bengal and India.

The event was conducted successfully and achieved its intended objectives of creating historical awareness and fostering humanitarian values among future teachers. The entire programme was properly documented through photographs and video recordings. A detailed report of the programme, along with relevant photographs and video documentation, has been preserved in the institutional records and uploaded to the official website of the college as instructed.

Thus, this letter may kindly be treated as a formal compliance report regarding the observance of the Day of Remembrance of the Partition of Bengal by our institution.

Thanking you.

Yours faithfully,

Bhagirathi Biswas

REPORT ON THE OBSERVANCE OF THE DAY OF REMEMBRANCE OF THE PARTITION OF BENGAL

As per the directive received from the competent authority, Sukdev Brahmachari Institute of Education solemnly observed the Day of Remembrance of the Partition of Bengal on Friday, 14 August 2026 at 11:00 A.M. in the college campus. The programme was organized with the objective of commemorating the memories of those who endured immense suffering, displacement, loss, and hardship during the Partition of Bengal and to create awareness among the student-teachers regarding the historical, social, cultural, and economic consequences of this significant event. The programme was attended by the Honourable Secretary of the institution, the Principal, faculty members, non-teaching staff, student-teachers of B.Ed. and D.El.Ed. programmes, invited guests, and members of the local community.

The programme commenced with a patriotic song performed by the student-teachers, followed by the formal inauguration of the event. The Honourable Secretary of the institution delivered the welcome address and warmly welcomed the distinguished guests, faculty members, and students. In his speech, he highlighted the importance of remembering the tragic experiences associated with the Partition of Bengal and emphasized the responsibility of educational institutions in preserving historical memory and promoting values of peace, humanity, and national integration. He urged the students to learn from history and contribute to the creation of a harmonious and inclusive society.

Thereafter, the Principal of the institution addressed the gathering and explained the significance of observing the Day of Remembrance. He elaborated on the historical background of the Partition and discussed its profound impact on the lives of millions of people who were forced to leave their homes and rebuild their lives under extremely difficult circumstances. The Principal stressed that such commemorative programmes help future teachers understand the human dimensions of history and develop empathy, social awareness, and democratic values.

A rich cultural programme was organized by the student-teachers and faculty members. The cultural segment included patriotic songs, group songs, recitations, and speeches reflecting the pain, sacrifice, resilience, and courage of the people affected by Partition. The recitation programme featured poems portraying displacement, loss of homeland, and the indomitable spirit of the people who struggled to overcome adversity. Several student-teachers delivered speeches highlighting the historical significance of the Partition of Bengal, the challenges faced by refugee communities, and the importance of maintaining communal harmony and national unity in contemporary society. The performances were highly appreciated by the audience for their emotional depth and educational value.

The highlight of the programme was the keynote lecture delivered by the Chief Guest, Dr. Sujit Kumar Biswas, District Co-ordinator, Samagra Shiksha Mission, Nadia, and renowned author, writer, and speaker. In his enlightening address, Dr. Biswas provided a comprehensive analysis of the historical circumstances that led to the Partition of Bengal and discussed its long-term social, economic, cultural, and psychological consequences. He vividly described the struggles faced by displaced families and emphasized how resilience, determination, and community support enabled many individuals to rebuild their lives. He further encouraged the student-teachers to study history critically and to foster values of tolerance, empathy, and social responsibility among future generations. His lecture was both informative and inspiring and received enthusiastic appreciation from all participants.

Faculty members also actively participated in the programme by sharing their reflections on the significance of remembering historical tragedies and preserving collective memory. They emphasized that education plays a crucial role in preventing the recurrence of social divisions and conflicts by promoting understanding, dialogue, and respect for diversity. The student-teachers participated with great enthusiasm throughout the programme and demonstrated a deep sense of engagement with the historical themes presented during the event.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by the Coordinator of programme, who expressed sincere gratitude to the Honourable Secretary, Principal, Chief Guest, faculty members, staff, and students for their active participation and support. He particularly thanked Dr. Sujit Kumar Biswas for his valuable lecture and inspirational message. The event ended with the National Anthem, reaffirming the commitment of all present to the ideals of unity, peace, democracy, and national integration.

The observance of the Day of Remembrance of the Partition of Bengal at Sukdev Brahmachari Institute of Education was a meaningful and educational initiative that successfully highlighted the sufferings, sacrifices, and resilience of the people affected by Partition. The programme served as an important platform for historical reflection and civic learning, encouraging the participants to uphold the values of humanity, mutual respect, social justice, and national unity. The event was successfully documented through photographs and video recordings for institutional records and dissemination through the college website.

Total Participants: Approximately 120 (One Hundred Twenty), including the Secretary, Principal, Chief Guest, faculty members, non-teaching staff, and student-teachers of B.Ed. and D.El.Ed. programmes.
